

Rocco Forte Hotel de Russie

ROME, ITALY – Impeccable décor, a welcoming staff and an ideal location are just a few of the elements that make Hotel de Russie one of Rome’s most impressive places to stay. Dating back two centuries, the property takes its cue from the Eternal City, offering a contemporary experience set against an Old World backdrop. Centrally located between the Spanish Steps and Piazza del Popolo, Hotel de Russie puts guests in the middle of this thriving city. The property is a mere 15-minute walk from celebrated sites like Vatican City and the Sistine Chapel, acclaimed fashion houses and superb shopping and dining options. The lobby and common areas, as well as the 122 guest rooms and suites, are all elegantly and thoughtfully appointed. Using neutral shades, innovative concepts and clean lines, acclaimed architect Tommaso Ziffer borrowed from many interior styles to create an eclectic ambiance that mirrors the melting pot that is Rome. A combined gym and spa, the hotel’s Wellness Zone features world-class body and beauty treatments, a Turkish steam bath and a saltwater whirlpool. State-of-the-art fitness equipment is also available, or visitors can opt for the unique Art Training program. In this unusual workout, personal trainers guide guests through the city, whether on foot or bike, pointing out historic sites and monuments along the way. Offered during early morning hours, Art Training is an unforgettable way to experience a relatively calm Rome. One of the property’s most enchanting spots is the Secret Garden. Here, guests can escape the rapid urban pace and unwind in a tranquil outdoor oasis. Tucked behind the hotel, lush greenery and a serene vibe align to create an idyllic atmosphere for al fresco dining in Le Jardin de Russie restaurant. At night, soft lighting and sumptuous meals help set the romantic mood that makes this hotel a perfect honeymoon destination.
